A Few Guidelines for E-Bible's Project Jonah tract trips:

1. Please do not count on laundry service as a way of bringing little clothing. All team members are required to pack enough clothes (including under-wear) for the number of days on the trip.
2. Any individual going on any E-Bible tract trip must agree not to distribute any tracts/booklets/Bible related material except that approved by EBF/FR.

All airfare is covered once applicant has been approved to go on a trip.

Concerning other expenses (such as hotels and taxis) please let us know if you will need some financial support by checking one of the following categories:

_____ Full support necessary

_____ Partial support necessary (if known please indicate what percentage of support you might need help with)

_____ No support necessary/ I will finance the full cost of hotels, etc. on this trip

Please let us know what you think concerning the following questions by answering them and submitting your responses with your application:

Q1. What do you think will happen on May 21, 2011?

A1. _____

Q2. If a person wanted you to recommend a reasonably faithful church to them what would you tell that person?

A2. _____

Q3. Do you believe that God will condemn the unsaved to an eternal damnation in hell? Please give a few details concerning what you believe about this.

A3. _____

Q4. When did Jesus make payment for the sins of the elect?

A4. _____

Q5. Do you mind constant movements on a trip? That is, arriving at a hotel and then after a couple of days moving on to another city and another hotel? How do you feel about travel?

A5. _____

Q6. Would you have any difficulty in taking directions from a team leader? Does it bother you at all when someone tells you what to do?

A6. _____

Q7. Please give a quick reason why you would want to go on an E-Bible tract distribution trip?

A7. _____
